With the appearance of a visitor from another planet, one of the many riders in this year's Corduroy Enduro is airborne on his cycle as he begins the first leg of the hill climb Saturday afternoon. Over 150 motorcyclists from across Canada and the United States competed in the annual event, held this past weekend. For more photographs, please see page five.

Runner inspires local fund in aid of cancer research

The groundswell of support for cancer victim Terry Fox reached Haliburton and Victoria Counties last week.

A group of local citizens, representing individuals in both counties has formed a committee to co-ordinate the collection of funds from this area for the Canadian Cancer Society.

Terry Fox is the 23 year old British Columbia native who lost his right leg to cancer several years ago. In an effort to draw attention to the need for funds for cancer research, Terry began a cross Canada "Marathon of Hope" earlier this year. He started on the east coast, with the announced intention of jogging right across the country.

Terry had to abandon his goal at Thunder Bay last week after doctors diagnosed a reoccurrence of cancer, this time in his lungs.

In his run across the county Terry has become a Canadian legend, capturing the imagination and support of all Canadians for his courage and determination. The early end to his marathon has resulted in an outpouring of messages of concern for his health and growing offers of financial assistance. A telethon held Sunday raised ten and a half million dollars.

Students and staff at Haliburton Highlands High School also responded to the example of the runner. Last Friday they sent a dollar for each student and staff member to the Canadian Cancer Society in the name of Terry Fox and sent him greetings from Haliburton on a scroll signed by everyone at the school.

Both the Minden and Haliburton Red & White Foodmasters have pledged to donate 14 cents to the Victoria-Haliburt[illegible] Terry Fox Fund for each loaf of Red & White brand bread sold between now and closing time on Saturday.

A constituency-wide campaign to raise funds for the cancer Society in Terry's name has also been started. Kicked off with $100 donations from Victoria-Haliburton MP Bill Scott and Victorian-Haliburton MPP John Eakins, the fund has already collected a substantial amount.

A meeting for those interested in helping organize this two-county campaign has been scheduled for Thursday evening, 8 p.m. at the Kinmount Community Centre. Everyone is invited to attend.

In addition to the donations received from the federal and provincial politicians, the following donations

Support for tax group grows slowly

J.O. Jackson, in a letter to the editor appearing in last week's edition of The Times, appealed to residents of Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships to help him form an association of taxpayers. So far Jackson reports that only "four or five individuals" have spoken to him. "I would like to be able to hold a meeting to explain some of the research I have carried out," Jackson comented, "but I don't think it would be worth it to meet if only a few individuals attended."

Jackson was encouraged by the response he received from one of the municipality's cottage association. "The president of the Bob Lake Cottagers Association called earlier this week and added his support to the effort. I have been invited to speak to a meeting of the group's executive to outline some of my concerns."

In an interview last week, Jackson said he was concerned that residents of Anson, Hindon and Minden were paying a greater proportion of their taxes to support county-wide administrations, such as the Board of Education and the County Council, than residents in other municipalities. He described the situation as "unfair" and felt a remedy should be sought, even if it meant having to go to Queen's Park to resolve the issue.

The organizer said he was surprised and pleased by the response from the cottage group. "I haven't really thought those organizations would be interested in a ratepayers group, but they do represent a large portion of the tax base," Jackson commented.

In considering other areas where a ratepayers group might be active, Jackson suggested the group could monitor and review existing and future by-laws passed by the township council, to attend and report on meetings of the council, and to evaluate the record of those who currently hold office, offering the group's support to those candidates who best represent the views of the association.

Jackson said the group could also become involved in the evaluation of township employees and appointed officials.

He pointed out that these ideas were merely a number which he had considered important and on which ratepayers group could be founded. He noted that when the group met there might be other concerns from those present which would add to the mandate of the group.

Jackson stated that he hopes to be able to set a date by next week for a meeting. "Before we go any further though, I want to know if there are enough people interested in forming the group," Jackson stated. He invited those who would be willing to attend a meeting to discuss the need for a ratepayers association, to get in contact with him during the next week so he can assess the degree of interest.

Most stores closed Monday

The streets will be quiet in Minden this Monday as local merchants mark the Civic Holiday. The holiday, taken in most other parts of the province on the first Monday in August, is moved to mid-September in Minden to allow stores to be open during the height of the summer holiday season.

Most stores, excluding the variety stores such as Mae's and Mike's Milk, will be closed Monday. Both banks, the Brewer's Retail and the Liquor Control Board of Ontario store will also be closed September 15.

Both the township and county offices will also mark the holiday while the post office will be the only government institution to be open. The post office was closed during the holiday in August.

Library-cultural centre funds

The total donations reported in The Times is $13,886.77.

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

Haliburton Highlands
the heart of getaway country

At an Ontario Chamber of Commerce Executives convention last week we were honoured to sit on a panel which discussed the various methods of promoting tourism in a given community. Jack Mann, manager of the Brantford Board of Trade and President of Convention Bureau Association of Ontario and Ted Mandy from the city of London's Tourist and Convention Bureau were included in the discussion. This provided three view points, one where the city totally financed and operated the promotional facility, one where it was a separate division of a Chamber and one, which was our case, where the Chamber accepted this reesponsibility as part of their mandate.

All recognized tourism as a top priority item that must be dealt with in a professional manner. The industry generated 6.6 billion dollars last year and is expected to be the biggest industry in Ontario within the next decade. It was noted that New York State have increased their promotional spending on tourism from 250 thousand dollars to 14 million dollars in the past 4 years. Quebec is now spending over 10 million dollars. We are not keeping pace in Ontario.

The spin-off from tourism dollars is so significant that spending tax dollars toward promoting it simply amounts to a good investment that will bring returns. Look for more Chambers to be actively involved with their municipal governments in the promotion of tourism. As we have said before, business is expected to be good but the competition will be keen.

Student programs

The Chamber was involved in the overall supervision of eight students on various programs this summer, -- more than ever before, and we are pleased to report on the results.

Marilyn Thayer headed up the group consisting of Leslie Hammond, Cathy Feir, and Susan Maughan who prepared a "Community Profile" for the Economic Development Commission. This was a very extensive project involving collection of data from all over the county that should provide the commission with a great deal of assistance in promoting establishment of new industry here. This group worked diligently, with a minimum amount of supervision and produced a valuable reference manual on each municipality plus one for the county.

Susie Wingat worked in the Chamber office and Brenda Fearrey at the Caboose in Haliburton as Travel Counsellors along with regular staff Ev Perin in Haliburton and Elaine Blakey and Carol Dunham in Minden. We had quite a number of compliments on the fine reception that was given to visitors this year by the girls and we are quite proud of them.

Steve Walker and Lorie Wrightman did some survey work for the Chamber this summer, a major portion of which related to the now scrapped Minden B.I.A. The fact that this information will now go unused is certainly no reflection on the effort that they put into it.

Complaints

With the number of visitors to our area each year it would be surprising to find that we had gone through a season with no complaints about the way people were treated -- but it's a goal worth shooting for. We are not always able to do anything constructive about the ones that do come to our attention, other than sympathize, and it is a helpless feeling. Business people have a very real right to be enraged when they hear that their colleagues have treated a visitor unfairly, because it is a reflection on all of us.

When a garage over charges an American visitor they expect that all garages do that, and when a dairy bar slams the window shut at closing time on a line of waiting customers they think we all appreciate their business no more than that. Certainly most of us treat visitors "Royally" and we spend a great deal of promotional dollars to encourage them to come here and spend liberally. Just one thoughtless action like this can negate all of that effort, and if you know someone that is doing just that, may we suggest that you let him know that you don't appreciate it -- and neither do we.

Bea Taylor keeps the pioneer skills alive

There is little doubt that Beatrice Taylor is a woman of many skills and talents. Her prodigious output is evident in the 99 entries she submitted at this year's Kinmount Fall Fair, or in the awards she has received for her work at competitions sponsored by the Guild of Fine Arts, or on the walls of her home on Bobcaygeon Road north or in the verdant and bountiful garden which she tends each year.

While, in this age of modern technology, many may consider the abilities of Bea to be extraordinary, for her they are simply the skills one had to know to survive fifty years ago in Haliburton County.

"In those days," she recalls, "nothing was thrown out. Old coats and shirts were saved, the patches of good material cut out for quilts. Other pieces of material were braided into rugs." She remembers making breeches from breeches... finding enough material, in serviceable condition, in the work pants of the men of the family to sew a pair of breeches for the youngest member of the family. "Nothing was wasted."

Bea is a native of Woodville, near Lindsay. She came to the county 50 years ago travelling to Hollow Lake near Dorset to teach school. It was a trip that took one and a half days to complete. Today the distance is covered in little more than an hour.

She taught for a couple of years at the Hollow Lake School and remembers, "It was located across the lake and each day I had to travel by canoe or boat to reach the school...a frightening experience for a nonswimmer." She then took a teaching post at the Bobcaygeon Road School located at the junction of the Scotch Line. Married a while later, she settled on a farm just north of the schoolhouse, a place she still calls home.

One of her favourite pastimes these days is quilting. Eight of her quilts were entered in various categories at the Kinmount Fall Fair. All were awarded ribbons. .

"I enjoy stitching and watching television," she comments from her comfortable chair by the window. "It is a great way to relax and means I am accomplishing something while watching T.V."

She selects her patterns from books and magazines. Unlike the days when she first started quilting, the materials in use now are mainly polyester and cotton. These materials are easier to clean. The quilts are stuffed with a terylene bat now too, instead of the traditional cotton.

"I particularly like to quilt on a blustery winter day when the snow is blowing outside and it is just too miserable to go out," Bea comments. "I have a room over the kitchen, heated by the wood stove pipe that passes through it. It is a pleasant feeling to be sitting there stitching and listening to the wind just outside the window."

Bea has been a member of a number of quilting groups, including one at the United Church. She enjoys quilting with friends or relatives and plans to be active with the group formed this year at the Rail's End Gallery in Haliburton.

And, are her quilts for sale? "No, not really," Bea comments. She has given some of her work away, and has 19 grandchildren and she intends to make a quilt for each of them. For most of us the pleasure of enjoying Bea's quilts will be limited to the local fall fair and Guild shows. However, if you'd like some sweet corn on the cob...

Editorial

An important safeguard

We applaud the efforts currently underway in Minden to form a ratepayers' association. Such organizations should thrive in all municipalities across the province and country.

One of the best safeguards to the democratic tradition by which this nation is governed is concerned and aware electorate. We have been disappointed on a number of occasions in the past to find the press to be the only outsiders present as council considers matters which are vital to the municipality's future. The press attempts to report, interpret and, on occasion, criticize, the actions of the public bodies it covers. We feel we are doing a good job, but also realize that we represent a single point of view. An attempt is always made to honestly and fairly report the activities, but we would welcome a regular, seasoned observer with a fresh perspective on the business under consideration.

One seemingly inherent flaw in ratepayer associations is their apparent compulsion to self-destruct. Tattered remnants of similar organizations can be found in most communities across Ontario. Often they pass into oblivion quickly when the issue that created the bond is resolved or fades from the lime light.

We hope this is not the case this time and suggest that township residents, even if they feel there is no need for an organization such as the one being proposed, spend a few minutes discussing the issues with the organizer, J.O. Jackson.

An active and alert citizens' committee can perform an important function in a community such as ours.

Responding to the call

Small town Ontario has once again proven it has a heart.

This past week our telephone was kept busy by callers suggesting that a local campaign be started in support of Terry Fox and his Marathon of Hope for cancer research.

We note as well that the students and staff of the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School have added their own contribution to the rapidly growing fund.

We enthusiastically endorse these efforts, particularly the drive which includes communities in both Haliburton and Victoria counties.

Terry Fox has done a great deal to draw the world's attention to the need for funds for cancer research. We know his message has been received in Haliburton and Victoria counties and will not go unanswered.

REPORT FROM QUEEN'S PARK

By John Eakins, M.P.P.

The summer season seems to have slipped by very quickly. While I have not been away from my office, I have tried to get to know more of Victoria-Haliburton and of Ontario, and to meet more of the people whom I represent at Queen's Park. I hope everyone has had a good summer, and for those on vacation, I hope it was an enjoyable one.

It no doubt is a little early to determine the full extent and effect of tourism in our area. Across the province there seems to have been some flat spots and it will take some time to assess the reasons why. I believe in Victoria-Haliburton that business in most cases has been excellent. Some have reported average business success, but I will report further to you through this column when I have more definite statistics.

One of the important areas of helping to develop tourism traffic is a good highway transportation link. There is some indication that this will improve with a number of recent announcements.

I am delighted that Highway 89 from Highway 400 to No. 12 is approaching the design stage. This east-west access link is important to Victoria-Haliburton and Peterborough, as well as other areas to the east and north. The contract has been awarded to Looby Construction Ltd., of Dublin, Ontario, at a cost of $516,878.00. The purpose of this contract is to replace the existing Mountain Lake Bridge, built in 1935, with a new structure on the existing alignment. During construction, traffic will be maintained by meals of a Bailey bridge detour. Modifications and improvements to the Ox Narrows and Drag River Bridges will bring these structures up to present Ministry standards. Work will shortly be underway and completion is scheduled for mid-summer of 1981.

Also, a contract has been awarded to Smith's Construction Co., of Arnprior, Ontario, for a distance of 5.9 miles on Highway 60. This project is for up-grading this section of the highway from the Ox River Bridge easterly to Algonquin Park west gate. This project will include widening the road bed, improving drainage, re-aligning curves, and modifying grades. The contractor's tender for this contract was $2,183,839.52. This contract should be underway immediately.

Last spring I approached the Government Protocol Office in a successful effort to recognize the work of our long-service firemen through the presentation of plaques. This recognition is signed by the Premier and acknowledges the dedication of our firemen in both Counties who have served 20 years or longer. There are some 35 recipients in all.

It is my feeling that people who serve in the background, risking their lives and sacrificing ther time away from their families, should indeed have the feeling that their services are appreciated. On behalf of the Ontario Legislature and the people of the Province, I am happy to have been able to play this small part.

Letters

Editor:

Here in Metropolitan Carnarvon, they keep telling us "you can't believe everything you read in the papers". Then you come out with that story on page 5 of your September 3 edition of The Times which appears to be 99 and 44/100ths percent accurate.

The first question that surfaced here at the hub of Metro Carnarvon was "where in hell did Mary Poppins get that Metro T-Shirt?" As mayor, I had to assure people that it was not a picture of Mary Poppins, but me, the mayor of Metro braving the heavy midtown traffic because the cute reporter your paper sent to do the interview thought it would be an appropriate place to shoot the mayor. I'm delighted to report the mayor did not get shot, but did nearly get flattened by a crosstown Greyhound during the picture taking. If the Times reporter hadn't been so darn cute I never would have put up with it at all.

As it was, the bus did run over my umbrella, so I was not able to replace the burned-out bulb in our famous flashing light until my new poppin brolly arrived the day before yesterday.

The only real boob (if you'll pardon the expression) that appeared in your story had to do with reference to the Metropolitan Carnarvon Symphony Orchestra and the forthcoming production of what we in Metro expect will be a best-selling record album called "North to Carnarvon". I must pause here to make sure I get this story straight myself. It is a little complicated and it's bad enough that your cute reporter blew it without me doing it too. So here goes...

"North to Carnarvon" is the name of Metro Carnarvon's recently released 'national anthem'. It was officially introduced at the first Country/Western Outdoor Concert at Stanhope Airport about a month ago by Jeff Barry's Barry Pickers, a popular group of entertainers whose roots are in Metro Carnarvon but who "do their thing" mostly in the Kitchener/Cambridge area. Audience response to the Barry Pickers' rendition of North to Carnarvon" ranged from "wildly enthusiastic" to "can I get a record of that song?"

That was the catalyst. Jeff Barry and the boys had been giving some thought to making a limited production album of their music - mostly for their own satisfaction. The response at the Stanhope concert was enought to inspire action, and at this time a full-scale, studio-based recording session is under way. Nine musicians, 16-track recording capacity, guitars, fiddles, drums, bass and singers - and the finished disc is planned to be marketed under the title "North to Carnarvon!", the album's feature song. Watch for it Ed.

Now that that's clear, let's get back to the Metro Symphony. Carnarvon has two Symphony orchestras. The first one operates under the alias of the Cedar Creek Blue Grass Band and it is not planning to make a record but they are planning to learn to sing. The other symphony's alias is Jeff Barry's Barry Pickers. They're the record

Tom Krehbiel, 34, of Manassas Virginia was the overall winner of this year's Corduroy Enduro. This was Tom's seventh year at the popular Haliburton County event. Coincidentally he completed the gruelling two days of riding with only seven demerit points. Photographs on this page capture the excitement of the two day event.

Irondale man killed by car

Dead is 18 year old Guy Sanford Mintz. The accident occured Sunday morning shortly before 6 o'clock.

According to police Edward Bacon, 69, of Gooderham, was travelling east on the highway as he neared the intersection. A heavy fog shrouded the road at the time. As he approached the corner he observed an object in the eastbound lane and attempted to avoid striking it, however, the car collided with the pedestrian.

Hits grate - couple injured

Two people received minor injuries when the car in which they were driving struck a sewer grate on September 3.

The driver, Effie MacDonald, 72, of Orillia was eastbound on Highway 121 near Haliburton when she struck a sewer grate as she drove over top of it. A passenger, Howard Montgomery, also of Orillia, was treated at Haliburton Red Cross Hospital for minor injuries.

$1500 damage

Damage was estimated at $1500 when a car entered a ditch on North Road in Minden and struck a rock on September 2.

Hits tree stump

A 24-year old Toronto man escaped a mishap without injury when the car he was driving entered a ditch on Kenaway Road and stuck a tree stump on September 4.

Trent Severn Waterway News

The remaining storage in Haliburton reservoir lakes stood at 75.9% on September 2, 1980 down only 2.2% since August 26. This resulted from considerable rain over the watersheds on the Labour Day weekend. The August average flow of the Gull River at Norland this year was the greatest since 1961 due to the wetness of late July and the surplus of stored water.

Kawartha Lakes levels responded by rising an average of 2-3 cm since eight days before. By today (September 5) the levels seem to be in decline virtually all over the system due to drier air.

Lake Simcoe - Couchiching is about 13 cm above the regulating curve with large outflows being maintained from it at Washago. Only a very slow decline can be expected due to the limited outlet capacity and the reduced evaporation in autumn.

Hustlers start final series

The Minden Rockcliffe Hustlers opened their final series of the season Tuesday evening. They faced the entry from Woodville in the first of a best of five final to wrap up the Tri-County Softball league season. (The game was played after press time and we expect to have a full report in next week's edition.)

The Hustlers bring the series home to Minden for two games this week. They play tonight, September 10, at the ball diamond and again Sunday evening. If the team continues its stellar performance of the past season, when it dropped only three games, these could be the last chance for local fans to take in a game. Game time both evenings is set for 7:30 p.m.

There! Now your story is 100 percent accurate, but it's not quite up to date. As mayor, I must report that things happen fast in Metropolitan Carnarvon, Since your cute reporter was here the following developments have taken place:

Metro's Official Seal T-Shirt has been seen in Europe already.

Joyce Wiltshire has been appointed Metro Carnarvon's Communications Commissioner and will be in charge of Metro's own CBC (Carnarvon Bull...Commission).

The Carnarvon Air Force has been established and a goodwill air tour to Harlington, Texas is planned for early October by eight CAF members in two Air Haliburton airplanes from Carnarvon's own CIA (Carnarvon International Airport) in Stanhope. The flyers will represent Carnarvon at the Confederate Air Force Airsho 80 at Rebel Field in Texas.

In conjunction with the Stanhope Airport Committee the Metropolitan Carnarvon Board of Trade and Wine Tasting Society will help produce a Fall-Colour Fly-In Flea-Market, Auction and Brunch which will feature a Country/Western concert by Jeff Barry's Barry Pickers.

I certainly hope you'll join us on Fly-In Day, Sunday, October 5, at Stanhope "International" Airport. If you can't come yourself, see if you can send the same cute reporter you sent before. I think he'll enjoy it very much. Just don't say anything to John.

Few sights can match the glory of our autumn leaves, but in your gathering of colourful sprays, never pick the most colourful vine. Chances are that those brilliant scarlet leaves are poison ivy.

Anyone who has suffered the painful scratchiness of a case of poison ivy might expect this plant to have an ominous appearance. In fact, it is among our most beautiful plants, with glossy green leaves in summer, turning to flaming red set off by white clusters of berries in the fall. Flower arrangers seeking wild materials may not realize the nature of their finest creation until a day too late.

To make matters worse, poison ivy is a ubiquitous plant whose needs are few. It flourishes on the thinnest soil, or on the richest farmland. It can be found in swamplands or on the driest of rocky ridges. It can look like a vine, a weed, and even a small shrub. And it's not really an ivy at all - it actually belongs to the cashew family.

Nonetheless, the annoying effects of coming in contact with poison ivy can generally be avoided by keeping in mind an old country rhyme - "Leaves three, leave it be." These three characteristic leaflets (never five, as in the similar Virginia creeper) are often waxy-looking, another good sign to be cautious.

People's reactions to poison ivy are almost as variable as the plant itself, ranging from a rapid spread of weeping blisters to only a mild itch. No one is really impervious, although some people are unusually resistant. Poison ivy retains its sting even after its leaves are gone, so that digging through winter roots or burning ivy-covered logs may create mysterious cases of its rash even outside the growing season. But with a little common sense and watchfulness, most cases of poison ivy can be prevented, so you can continue to enjoy wild nature in comfort.

Tennis instruction underway

Instruction for tennis enthusiasts has started through the Minden Racquet Club.

The first session was held Wednesday, September 3 at the municipal courts. A second coaching session is planned for this evening.

The instruction is being provided by Frank Wallace of Haliburton.

Paul Prentice is the captain of the tennis section of the club. Members are invited to take advantage of these sessions which begin at 7:30 p.m.

The ping pong and badminton sections of the club will begin their activities for the season shortly. Those wishing to take part, or wanting more information, should contact Jeff Lodenquai, at the Minden Medical Centre, 286-2001.

Correction

Several points made in a front page report and the editorial of last week's edition require clarification.

Mr. Michael Collins, speaking on behalf of the Haliburton County Anti-Pollution Committee has stated that the Ontario government intends to spend up to $5 million to save up to 2000 lakes. The committee is urging the Ministry of Environment to spend $50 million in an effort to save up to 20,000 lakes. (The report and editorial last week indicated the number of lakes to be 200,000. This was incorrect.)

Also, due to an error, the word "not" was omitted from a sentence in the editorial on the same subject. The corrected sentence reads: "We would like to think the Ontario government, no matter which party holds the reins of power or how desperate they are to win the next election, would not be callous or arrogant enough to sacrifice the well-being of our environment to gain votes."

We apologise for the confusion these errors may have created.

Second Main St. window broken

Another large display window in the downtown area of Minden has been broken. This is the second such incident to happen in the last two weeks.

Two youths, both from Burlington, were passing the store shortly before two o'clock in the morning. According to police the youths were "horsing around" when one was pushed up against the store window and it shattered.

Police apprehended the two individuals a short time later. Walter M. Cumberland, 19, and Paul J. Rutherford, also 19, have been charged with mischief under the Criminal Code.

A large window in the front of the Northland Sales store adjacent to the Home Hardware outlet was broken a week earlier. The cause of the damage was reported by police to have been the same sort of incident, although no charges have as yet been laid.

Rotary dollars and local expertise help build new sawmill

Anson, Hindon and Minden Reeve Sinc Nesbitt and Stanhope Deputy Reeve Elgin Stouffer have returned from the Carribean Island of Dominica. The two were assisting in the establishment of a sawmill on the island. The following report, from The New Chronicle of Roseau Dominica, describes the new mill.

An EC$ 3/4 million timber salvage project is now in operation in Dominica, thanks to Rotary Clubs of Canada.

On Thursday last, Prime Minister Eugenia Charles was taken on a tour of the project by local Rotarians and Messrs Elgin Stouffer and Sinclair Nesbitt, the two Canadian saw-mill experts who got the project off the ground.

Funding for the timber salvage operation came from Rotary Clubs in Canada who contributed $80,000 which was supplemented by $240,000 from the Canadian International Development Agency (C.I.D.A.)

Local Rotarian President Dermott Southwell told the NEW CHRONICLE that an immediate drive would be launched to market the local lumber. The Saw-mill is capable of putting out 5000 board feet of lumber daily. Already 10,000 board feet of timber have been salvaged.

There is to be as little waste as possible. Scrap lumber is already being made into charcoal a scant one hundred yards from the operation.

The Canadian experts expressed great satisfaction with the local help and were of the opinion that the entire operation could be taken over by Dominicans within one year.

Prime Minister Eugenia Charles described the project as "one very dear to my heart." Miss Charles said she remembered going through the forests and seeing the desolation wrought to the island's trees. Her first thought, she said was how to put all those fallen trees to use and actually take advantage of the destruction of Hurricane David.

"So I was very pleased when I heard of the Rotary Club's scheme to utilize this timber. I am particularly happy to see the project in operation, to see Dominicans happy at work, and enjoying and learning these skills. Anything which brings employment to Dominicans is doubly important," she said.

The Prime Minister was so impressed with the operation that she promised to get a kiln to go along with the salvage operation.

Timber from two hundred and forty acres at Saltoun belonging to twelve land-owners, is being salvaged.

To quote the Prime Minister: "It's good to be here today to see the happy faces of Dominican youth engaged in meaningful work."

The NEW CHRONICLE supports those sentiments.

Championship shoot opens fall season

The Haliburton County Marksmen Club held its first Championship Shoot Sunday. The competition was held to determine the best shooter in each category - hand gun, rifle and shot gun.

This was not a turkey shoot, and all competitions, except trap shoot, were shot on paper targets, under strict competition rules. In order to give everyone a chance to win a prize, a "handicap" competition was also run concurrently - each shooter choosing a handicap which is added to his gun score, and the score which is closest to 100 won.

It is the aim of the club to hold this Championship Shoot every year. Awards and prizes will be distributed to winners at the annual general meeting in November.

Jeff Lodenquai demonstrated his capabilities as a hand gun shooter when he won all six pistol events. Boyd Jarvis captured three small bore rifle events, Ulyses Toutant won the high power rifle event, and Lyn Forsyth won the trap shoot after a shoot-off with Jack Snell. Broken store windows seem to be frequent as there was one out at Home Hardware Saturday.

Also noticed black skid marks in the IGA Parking lot. Wonder who did that and when - some people have no regard for others who may be trying to sleep after a hard day's work or may be ill in bed.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of the late Mrs. Frank Hargreaves and Guy Mintz who died recently.

Will Rogers said this many years ago - "Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there!"

If you put a little loving into all the work you do,
A little bit of gladness, a little bit of you,
A little bit of sweetness, a little bit of song,
Not a day will seem so toilsome, not a day will seem so long.

Hint of the Week:
Paint removers for face and hands - Cooking oil or baby oil is a better way to remove paint because it will not burn the skin. For easy removal, rub vaseline on exposed skin. Before painting, give fingernails a good coating of bar soap for the fastest wash-up ever.

He who endures with patience is a conqueror.

Bye for now. Take it easy. God bless till next time.

The holiday weekend brought plenty of visitors to the residents of Hyland Crest. Everyone enjoyed the day Monday resting.

Tuesday morning Rev. David Barker of Minden Anglican church held service in the Chapel. Rev. Barker will be leaving soon and we will certainly miss his inspiring messages and words of comfort.

Later in the afternoon several people gathered in the main lounge for a game of Bingo. Our thanks to Helen Lee, Pat Ackerblade and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jenkins for helping the residents watch their cards.

Wednesday was a regular day of activities with fun and fitness in the morning and crafts in the afternoon.

The ladies of Kinmount A.C.W. brought a delicious lunch for the Thursday tea party. They served a variety of sandwiches and goodies. Everyone enjoyed the food and the visit from these familiar ladies.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Grace Coburn and Lucille Clarke were here to lead the sing song. We enjoyed singing the old favorite songs and hymns, also some lively tunes played by Mrs. Clarke on the piano.

The movies this week were very interesting indeed. "Energy in Canada" told us how dependent we are on oil and natural gas. Canadians use more energy than anyone in the world. As a result we have to find more to accomodate our needs. We also learned about solar radiation which is the energy source of the future. "Leather's Better" took us to a fashion show featuring leather. Leather is one of man's natural materials and it lasts for years. Beautiful clothing, footwear and handbags are made from leather.

A little town is...

A little town is where you don't have to guess who your enemies are. Your friends will tell you.

A little town is where people with various ailments can air them properly to sympathetic ears.

A little town is where few people can get away with lying about the year they were born; too many other people can remember.

A little town is where, when you get the wrong number, you can talk for 15 minutes anyway.

A little town is where the ratio of good people to bad people is something like 100 to 1. That's nice to remember.

A little town is where it is hard for anybody to walk to work for exercise, because it takes too long to stop and explain to people in cars who stop, honk, and offer you a ride.

A little town is where city folks say there is nothing to do, but those who live there don't have enough nights in the week to make all the meetings and social functions.

A little town is where those same businessmen dig deep many times to help with countless fund-raising projects in the community.

Final 4 stamps in Inuit series

Inuit Spirits is the theme of a set of four new commemorative stamps to be released by Canada Post on September 25.

"The spirituality of a people is often the foundation for its way of life," said Postmaster General Andre Ouellet, in making the announcement. "This is especially true of the Inuit people living in Canada's northland. To the Inuit, spiritual force is present in each phenomemon of nature, not just in living creatures."

The Inuit Spirit stamps, designed by Reinhard Derreth of Vancouver, feature prints and sculptures by Inuit artists. On the 17-cent stamps, the sculpture Sedna, a woman believed to be living on the sea bottom and controlling the supply of sea animals, is by artist Ashoona Kiawak; the print Return of the Sun representing animal species greeting the sun in a spirit of festivity is by Kenojouak. On the 35-cent stamps, the reproduction of the sculpture Bird Spirit, a bird with a human face indicating the presence of a spirit in the animal, is the work of Doris Hagiolok; the print Shaman, the intermediary between Inuit and the spirit world, is by Simon Tookoome.

This set on Spirits completes a four-year series on the Inuit, with previous sets on themes of Hunting, Shelter, and Community Life, for a total of 16 stamps. The complete series is presented in a prestigious Heritage Stamp Collection entitled "Singing Songs to the Spirit." This 56-page book includes blocks of four of all eight se tenant pairs and sells for $7.95.

The Canadian Bank Note Company of Ottawa will print 22 million of the 17-cent stamps and 13 million of the 35-cent stamps in five-colour lithography in panes of 50 stamps se tenant (checkerboard pattern).

Vinton Loucks

Vinton Loucks, a lifelong resident of Minden township, died August 24, 1980. He would have been 82 on August 30. A longtime farmer and woodsman, he was active in the community life of Ingoldsby, Minden and the Haliburton County area for almost 60 years.

He married Letitia Emily Hunter of Clinton in 1926 and they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in Minden four years ago. Mrs. Loucks predeceased her husband in 1977. At the time of his marriage he had taken over operation of his late father's farm on what is now Highway 121, five miles northeast of Minden on Canning Lake. The property had been homesteaded by his grandfather in 1867.

For most of the 1940's and '50's; Mr. Loucks was the secretary-treasurer of the Minden Township School Area Board. After retirement from the farm in 1958, he worked for the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden and was member and later chairman of the Haliburton Telephone Commission. He was active from the 1920's to the 1950's on the Ingoldsby United Church Board. He was a member of the Minden Rotary Club during the 1950's and '60's, serving one year as President.

Mr. Loucks was widely recognized for his dedication to Freemasonry. He was three times Master of Arcadia Lodge in Minden, a District Deputy Grand Master and, a member of the Scottish Rite. A Masonic service with representatives from Victoria and Haliburton counties was held for him by the Minden Arcadia Lodge.

The funeral service was held, on August 27, 1980 at Ingoldsby United Church, conducted by Rev. Douglas Miller of Minden United Church, with interment in the family plot at Ingoldsby Cemetery. Vinton is survived by six children: Albert, King City; Orie, Indianapolis, Indiana; Barbara (Mrs. Don Godberson) Fort St. John, B.C.; Leon, Charlottetown, P.E.I.; Foster, Inverness, N.S.; Phyllis (Mrs. Hugh Kylie), Bruce Mines, and 19 grandchildren.
